

Chris' Curriculum / Presentations

In Sickness and In Health: A Couple's Final Journey

Nominated for a Pulitzer Prize Award by the South Florida Sun-Sentinel in January 2015 and seen by over 400,000 people worldwide; Chris takes you inside the story to talk about Love, Care, Commitment, and life after Caregiving.

Spiral of Silence: Caregiving, Stress and its Impact in the Work Place.

Chris's Master's Degree thesis is the focal point of this presentation with an emphasis of the financial impact caregiving for the family caregiver and the employers. This presentation will focus on work-place culture, why creating a community impact on caregiving is important, and how to balance work and family caregiving responsibilities.

The Caregiving Years: Through the Lens of an LGBT Caregiver

Objective is to create a perspective through the six stages of caregiving, that best helps you during your caregiving experience. This presentation is for all family caregivers.

What's the Deal with Caregiving?

Chris' book, "What's the Deal with Caregiving takes you on the caregiving journey from beginning to end, with plenty of sound tips in-between. Learn the importance of creating a care time, how to advocate for your caree, using your Ph.D. in caregiving and Chris' four stages of grief.

